Wearing of the Green

It's hard to imagine a color other than green dominating St. Patrick's Day celebrations, but for centuries, blue was associated with Ireland. One reason for the color switch was the Irish Rebellion of 1798, an uprising against British rule in which Irish soldiers wore green uniforms. As made famous by the lyrics of the ballad "The Wearing of the Green," people began displaying the color as an expression of national pride.

"Flowers don't worry about how they're going to bloom. They just open up and turn toward the light and that makes them beautiful."

—Jim Carrey
